

The past few months have been challenging times indeed.
The other side of this pandemic is no doubt a time of strategic change.
It presents us opportunities and unveils horizons to which we must adjust our vision.
Our industry is no stranger to change. We have weathered many storms.
As we forge a path onto a new business landscape, we want you to know that Canadian Institute of Underwriters will be with you all the way.

To the many members and industry partners who share our commitment to excellence
We say ... we have your back...and we will be back. CIU's executive team is looking ahead, working to bring you more leading-edge educational presentations, many meaningful opportunities for networking and special moments to celebrate the achievements of our members and industry association network.
There will be events to share these experiences and showcase the best of our industry...

We'll do it all ... together with you.

Please visit www.ciu.ca for details on upcoming events or contact any one of our Executive Team! See you on the other side!
